WELCOME TO COTATI: THE HUB OF SONOMA COUNTY!

Welcome to the "Hub of Sonoma County," the city of Cotati. Cotati was founded in 1893 and incorporated in 1963 and is one of only two cities in the United States based on a hexagonal design. We are located in one of the most beautiful areas in California and are conveniently located a short distance from both rural and cosmopolitan pursuits. Cotati offers a location with small town charm with access to larger urban centers. And our proximity to Sonoma State University includes an infusion of youthful energy to our town's commerce.

With the support of the community through Measure G, Cotati has been able to bring back our recreation programs, which has been a high priority of the City Council for quite some time. As Cotati's recreational opportunities have begun to develop, we have realized a need to reach our community with information about our ongoing and upcoming programs and events through this Activity Guide, as well as the City website, social media, utility newsletters, and our online registration page for Parks and Recreation programs. In our guide, you will find information regarding our school year classes and camps, special events, and more. There's sure to be something for everyone!

As we continue to move forward, you will see even more improvements for our Parks and Recreation Department. This Fall and Winter, you can expect to see new and continuing community events, camps, and classes, including new farm based programs with the Veronda-Falletti Ranch. If you are looking for programs not currently offered, drop us a line at awilson@cotaticity.org with your suggestions.

We look forward to seeing you all enjoying Cotati as we strive to keep small city charm and continue to make Cotati a wonderful place to work, live, and play!

DEAR FRIENDS,

More than 250 of Cotati's businesses and individuals are members of the Chamber of Commerce. There are many reasons why they join, but one is our bi-weekly online newsletter. In it they find items of interest such as special events like the Cotati Music Festival, Oktoberfest, Farmers' Market, Kids Day and Holiday Cheer; deals on local items and stories about interesting people and places. A recent story was about the Cotati Speedway built in 1920 near the Cotati railroad tracks. Sadly it only lasted for two years but the wood from that track was used to construct some of the buildings in town. One of those was the Redwood Café whose floor was made from that wood. Another interesting fact about Cotati: the Jim Boggio statue in La Plaza Park, created to honor Boggio who started the Accordion Festival, has a real accordion cast in the bronze. Check it out. There's so much more to be found in the Chamber newsletter and around town.

You don't have to be a member to receive the newsletter. Just drop an email to chamber@cotati.org and we'll add you to the list.

Get to know your chamber and member businesses on starting on page 24. And when you can, please shop local to benefit your community.

Feel free to stop by the office, call us with questions or follow us on Facebook, Instagram and/or Twitter.

The Sweetest Little City

It's not just little girls who are made of sugar and spice and everything nice. Sometimes it's about places that make you feel special—like a bakery! There are plenty of exceptional bakeries all within a 2-mile radius in sweet little Cotati. Looking toward the holidays, the bakeries are gearing up for sweet treats and savories to make your gatherings special.

EL PASO BAKERY

8274 Old Redwood Hwy | 707 665-9068

A small but delicious spot is El Paso Bakery which has something extra not normally seen in a bakery. In addition to specialty custom cakes (most popular is tres leches) they serve scoops of ice cream, found nowhere else in town. Get a cone or a cup on a warm day and spend a few minutes out on the patio watching downtown Cotati go by.

El Paso Bakery makes a mixture of Mexican and French pastries, including the stand-out pink Conchas, Mexican sweet bread. They make beautiful specialty cakes for birthdays, weddings and other of life's events. Their flan is authentic and delicious. Their cookies and Mexican breads are outstanding and the friendly owners and staff make visitors feel welcome, like old friends over the past 14 years they have been in business. Morning breakfast bagels are served warm and tasty.

"A delicious little Mexican bakery, always friendly and great prices. They have tons of delicious traditional Mexican breads and pastries from conchas to cuernos, and lots more," says Tony Sarg, a recent visitor to El Paso Bakery.

OLIVER'S MARKET BAKERY

Oliver's Market, 546 East Cotati Avenue | 707 795-9501
oliversmarket.com/store/cotati

Marghi Sulas, bakery coordinator at Oliver's Market says "We bake the world a better place." Sulas and her team of artisans love creating and are known for their fancy cakes, pastries and sweets. One of the fun and exciting favorites is the Princess Cake which is a vanilla cake, layered with a hint of raspberry jam and a blend of pastry cream and whipped cream, with a beautifully-color Marzipan covering. It brings a lovely surprise when cut.

The glass cases in the Oliver's bakery are filled with six and eight-inch sized cakes topped with fresh flowers, seasonal fruits and shaved Belgian chocolate, among other toppings. Icings, mousses, curds and ganaches are made in-house and use locally-made ingredients whenever possible. Selections are continually changing, highlighting the best of what is in season.

Specialty coffees as well as smoothies and juices, cookies and pastries, pies and doughnuts, round out the Oliver's Market Bakery.

RED BIRD BAKERY556 East Cotati Avenue | 707 521-9838*redbirdbakery.com

New this year to Cotati is Red Bird Bakery, where Artisan breads, baked goods, custom cakes, pastries, and delights are made in the early hours of each day, often selling out before the day is done. Their family name, Cermak, is Czech. It translates to 'red bird' which they thought was a catchy name for a bakery, says Linda Cermak. Isaac's dad always wanted to open a bakery with Isaac and Linda. That plan was realized in Red Bird.

Beautifully decorated cakes, fancy desserts and breads are influenced by the seasons and the market. Both Isaac, in bread making, and Linda, as a pastry chef, have vast experience and have worked at award-winning bakeries such as the The Model Bakery in Napa and Della Fattoria in Petaluma. The Cermak's make the most of local and regional markets, incorporating nature's bounty into their recipes, creating homemade jams, pickles, syrups and spreads in addition to sweets and breads. Hungry for lunch? They also make delicious sandwiches and salads.

"We love making hand-crafted, delicious, and nourishing food to feed our children and, by extension, our family of customers," says Isaac. And they do catering!

SIFT DESSERT BAR7582 Commerce Blvd. | 707 792-1681*siftdessertbar.com

Owner Andrea Dallus of Sift had one brief but powerful vision for her bakery when she started just over 10 years ago: Bring happiness to celebrations nationwide. Sift is known for its cupcakes and its many flavor options, including Lemony Snicket, Ooh La La (Red Velvet), Pink Champagne, Samoa and so many others. They base all of their desserts from 14 main flavor profiles. From those flavors, 58 dessert items are created!

But because they are a dessert bar (not just a cupcakery), they also carry French macarons, whoopie cookies, pies, cakes, cruffles, (cake on a stick without the stick), ice cream sammies, cake shakes and frosting shots. Each and every dessert is outstanding and served with a smile!

Sift creations have appeared in People Magazine and were the featured cupcakes at actress Tamera Mowry's wedding and baby showers. In 2011, Sift took first place the Food Network's CUPCAKE WARS in the wedding category.

Have some thoughts on a new flavor? They love new ideas. Send it to hello@siftdessertbar.com.

YOUR SWEET EXPECTATIONS8099 La Plaza | 707 285-2013*YourSweetExpectations.com

One of the most traditional bakeries in town is Your Sweet Expectations. This gourmet dessert bakery and café is lead by owner Carolyn Bessé. Carolyn and her talented bakers and artists create custom theme and specialty cakes for any occasion. But cakes are only one part of the experience. Each day you can find the bakery cases filled with cupcakes, cookies, pastries and other delectables, in addition to breakfast items, sandwiches and savories.

A special treat is Carolyn's signature icing called WCCCI. Tasting like heaven, it's made from a recipe incorporating whip cream and cream cheese!

In 2018, Carolyn won the award for "Best in Taste" cake at the Sonoma County Art of Desserts competition. Carolyn and team create wedding cakes, custom cookies, cupcakes, special occasion cakes and custom desserts to delight guests and party planners across California. Each is a work of art, from attractive, elegant designs to the moist, mouth-watering taste of the cake.

A bronze statue of a man playing an accordion, set against a background of trees and a building. The statue is the central focus, with the man depicted in a joyful pose, looking slightly upwards and to the right. The accordion is large and detailed, with visible keys and bellows. The background shows a blurred view of a building with a gabled roof and lush greenery, suggesting a park or public square setting.

Balanced Budget

Planning for the Future $4.8 Million Fund Balance

The City has a reserve policy of 25% to secure a consistent level of service to our community in the event of a financial hardship. For Fiscal year 2019-20 we have continued to exceed that minimum with an estimated 71% reserve.

- Maintenance of our streets, parks, and public buildings.
- Funds parks and recreation programs.
- Funds our local police department, including:
 - 911 Emergency Dispatch
 - Domestic Violence Response Services

HONORING Women of Cotati

Sunday, November 3rd | 2-4pm

Join us as we celebrate a number of Cotati women who contributed to our community over the last century. Local panelists will share stories of three particular citizens who lived in the community from the 1920s to the 2010s:

Ethel Clothier, Marguerite Hahn, and Prue Draper

Marie McNaughton will speak about the spirited women who founded Cotati's first Ladies' Improvement Club and the city's first female voters.

We hope also to open the floor to anyone wishing to honor a Cotati woman of their choosing with stories, pictures, and/or artifacts. Anyone wishing help in preparing a short presentation or to volunteer to help with the event can contact CHS at 707-794-0305 or chsinfo@sonic.net.

This free event is open to the public. Light refreshments will be served.
